Code of Conduct (Parents and Guardians)

Introduction

Parents and guardians are an indispensable part of a child's education. We recognise that parents and guardians are part of the School community and have a right to participate in their child's education.

Purpose and Objectives

In order to balance the rights of parents and guardians, Students, teachers and staff, we expect parents/guardians to uphold a certain standard of behaviour. This standard allows children to learn, teachers to teach, and other community members to participate in education, free from harassment, violence, intimidation and vilification. Parents and guardians should set an example for their children, and the children of others. They have a shared responsibility with their children, other parents/guardians and the School to ensure that their children abide by the Student Code of Conduct.

Scope

This Policy and its Procedures apply to all members of the School community.

Responsibilities

There are no specific roles or responsibilities associated with this Policy.

Policy

It is the Policy of the school to aim to resolve complaints and grievances within the school fairly and to benefit the welfare of the students. This policy is published on the school website.

Values

Parents and guardians should uphold the values of Aetaomah School.

Our values are:

- excellence – in your schoolwork, extra-curricular, sporting and other personal endeavours
- respect – for your teachers, parents/guardians, peers and members of the community
- courtesy – with everyone you interact with
- pride – in yourself, and the way you represent the Aetaomah School
- personal responsibility – for your actions
- integrity – honesty and candour in all of your dealings
- tolerance – for others, regardless of their background, age, gender, sexuality, religion or race
- inclusion – of all those who decide to come to Aetaomah School, and of those in the community.

Extra-Curricular and Sporting Events

We recognise that parents and guardians are often actively involved in the sporting and extra-curricular events of their children. We encourage parents to participate in such activities and to support their children, however we also make clear that we have high expectations of parents at these events and activities.

At these events, especially sporting events, parents are expected to:

- encourage (without forcing) their children to participate
- never ridicule, berate, discourage or otherwise interfere with their child or another child
- uphold the principles of good sportsmanship and fair play
- never yell, abuse or otherwise interfere with a sporting official, coach or other person
- never incite, encourage or commit acts of violence
- never use foul or abusive language
- never interfere in an activity.

Dealing with the Aetaomah School

Parents and guardians are expected to deal with our teaching and non-teaching staff in a way that is courteous and respectful at all times.

Parents and guardians should only deal with teachers in accordance with our Parent Communication and Involvement Policy and Procedures so that teachers are able to discharge their duties without interference.

Parents and guardians should not approach or interact with the children of other parents without their permission.

Aetaomah School Policies

Parents and guardians should support their children so that they can comply with Aetaomah School policies.

Parents and guardians, as members of the Aetaomah School community, are also expected to comply with Aetaomah School policies and reasonable directions, including those relating to health and safety and communications with the Aetaomah School.

Complaints and Feedback

Aetaomah School has developed a complaints policy to ensure that all grievances and complaints are dealt with by the Aetaomah School in the appropriate manner.

Should a parent or guardian be unable to resolve an issue informally, they may lodge a complaint with the Aetaomah School. We commit to dealing with this complaint according to our Complaints Handling Policy.
